INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT RACE AND ETHNICITY?

Each year, the NCORE-ISCORE Project accepts applications from Iowa State students interested in attending the National Conference on Race and Ethnicity in Higher Education (NCORE). In 2018, the conference will be held in New Orleans!

Students present knowledge gained from their NCORE experience at the Iowa State Conference on Race and Ethnicity (ISCORE) the following year.

This year-long program on race and ethnicity includes attendance and participation in NCORE and UST 321—a course designed to expand your knowledge around race and provide you with tools to deliver a thought-provoking presentation at ISCORE. Other benefits:

- Leadership skills
- Positive impact on the university community
- Network with students and professionals from across the country
- Get to know faculty and staff members at ISU
- Build mentoring and peer relationships
